We are committed to protecting personal information. Records and personal information are released in compliance with the federal Driver Privacy Protection Act of 1994 (DPPA), and Washington State laws. These laws restrict redisclosure of personal information obtained from vehicle and vessel records, and protect owners from unsolicited business contact. Authorized recipients may only redisclose information as permitted by law. There is no guarantee your request will be approved. See Authorities at the bottom of Page 2 of this application.

Answer the following

Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records).

The PNWRCC investigates companies that operate in the underground economy by breaking basic labor laws. The PNWRCC will utilize the CPS to research vehicle records to substantiate ownership of property in the support in-house, civil, and criminal investigations. For example, the PNWRCC would utilize CPS to determine if an individual owns several assets while simultaneously evading taxes or not paying workers.

Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information.

The PNWRCC will not contact the owner for any purposes regarding the CPS search and will not disclose the information to an attorney or private investigator. When necessary, the information contained in the CPS will be provided to the appropriate state or federal agency to assist in a civil or criminal investigations. Such agencies typically include: the Department of Labor and Industries, the Department of Revenue, the Internal Revenue Services, the United States Department of Labor, etc.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.
